WELCOME TO ONCOLOGY 2020

FEBRUARY
2020
PARIS

Hilaris Conferences warmly invites you to join the Oncology Conference 2020 in Paris, France on February 20-21, 2020. The Oncology 2020 with the theme “Fearless commitment for a cancer free world” will provide the opportunity to engage in open, constructive & innovative dialogue about the past, present & the future for Oncology, Endocrinology and Metabolism.

Oncology 2020 Conference will construct some thought provoking scientific sessions. This summit intends to bring together Academicians, Business Professionals, Physicians, Experts and overall learners to discuss and share current researches as well as the future prospects of Oncology and the knowledge related to Oncology, Endocrinology and Metabolism. The 2020 edition of the conference will provide a great prospect to learn new skills, share real-world experiences with your peers as well as one to one discussion with the experts.

In this contemporary medical environment which is dynamic and challenging, we believe Paris will serve as the medical capital and the Oncology 2020 team welcomes you to be a part of this journey.

OUR CITY PARIS »

Paris is the capital and most populous city of France, with an area of 105 square kilometres. Paris is also known as the “City of Love”. Paris is popular as a honeymoon destination. The Eiffel Tower is the most romantic place in Paris. Lutetia was gradually renamed Paris, taking its name from the Parisii. Paris is called as The City of Light because Paris was one of the first large European cities to use gas street lighting on a grand scale on its boulevards and monuments. The population of the city is around 2.2 million and the city has a multicultural tradition. The population of the city is around one-fifth of the France, which makes it the second largest metropolitan area in the European region.
